Purpose: As the GEF-8 Integrated Programs are established, with a universal ambition to be transformative, it is important to be clear on what transformation is and how to monitor it in ways that can assist with rapid learning and adaptive management. The webinar presents an approach to these issues and some experiences in tackling them, to assist the IPs during this crucial period of planning.

Introduction (5 minutes): Mohamed Bakarr (GEF secretariat, Lead Environmental Specialist, Strategic Programming Initiatives):

Monitoring and learning about transformation (15 minutes): Mark Stafford Smith (STAP): STAP's advice on framing transformation, and on how to approach possible lead indicators for GEF's transformation levers

Questions and answers (10 minutes): Mohamed Bakarr, GEF secretariat
